

Eternal Tomb

i crawl out of the Tomb in order to live kicking and screaming my life's pains begin i find in time, it would have been better not to have been as i have learnt since my birth i am being prepared in life while trying to live to face the ever-impending reversal of the rebirthing a destined destination to come back into -an eternal Womb
